SUMMARY OF ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENTS

Real gross domestic product grew at an annual rate of 6.8 percent in the third quarter of 2018, higher than 6.6 percent in the corresponding quarter in 2017. The main drivers of the growth were transport, construction, agriculture, trade, and manufacturing activities.

Headline inflation remained low at 3.0 percent in the quarter ending March 2019 compared with 3.1 percent in the preceding quarter and 4.5 percent in the corresponding quarter in 2018, respectively, driven mostly by low food prices due to adequate food supply. The sustained low inflationary environment was a significant milestone in facilitating high economic growth and complying with the East African Community (EAC) and Southern African Development Community (SADC) convergence criteria of not more than 8.0 percent and between 3.0 and 7.0 percent, respectively. Noteworthy, in EAC headline inflation average 1.5 percent while in SADC it was 9.7 percent.

The growth rate of extended broad money supply (M3) picked up to 5.0 percent in the year ending March 2019 from 4.5 percent in December 2018. Credit extended to the private sector by banks expanded significantly at annual rate of 9.6 percent from 4.9 percent in December 2018. Interest rates on deposits and loans were lower in the quarter to March 2019 compared with similar quarter in 2018.

Fiscal operations remained streamlined to facilitate sustainable economic growth, through efforts to enhance revenue collection and spending on development projects. Central Government resource envelope, comprising domestic revenue and foreign grants, amounted to TZS 5,077.6 billion, whereas expenditure was TZS 5,460.6 billion.

External debt remained sustainable, albeit increased by USD 469.1 million from the end of the quarter ending December 2018 to USD 21,529.6 million largely owing to new disbursements and appreciation of the US dollar, which is the reporting currency of debt, against other currencies in which the debt is denominated. Domestic debt decreased significantly by 523.2 billion over the quarter to TZS 14,108.2 billion due to redemption of securities.

The overall balance of payments improved, recording a deficit of USD 326.4 million in the quarter ending March 2019 from a deficit of USD 455.7 million in the corresponding quarter in 2018. Gross official reserves amounted to USD 4,681.7 million at the end of March 2019, sufficient to cover 4.6 months of projected import of goods and services.

In Zanzibar, real output growth remained positive, albeit slowed down to 3.2 percent in the fourth quarter of 2018 from 7.3 percent in the similar quarter in 2017. Cloves procurement declined, largely explained by the cyclical nature of the crop. Headline inflation remain low, easing to 2.8 percent from 3.9 percent in the last quarter of 2018.

Fiscal operations by the Revolutionary government of Zanzibar was on tract, with revenue and grants realized amounting to TZS 224.0 billion, while expenditure was TZS 306.0 billion. The debt stock, both domestic and external debt, increased to TZS 815.9 billion at the end of March 2019 from TZS 440.8 billion at the end of March 2018 as a result of new disbursements of funds for development projects.

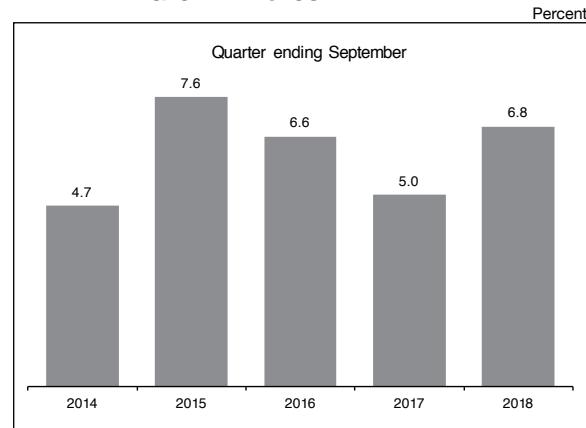

The current account balance registered a deficit of USD 1.5 million compared with a deficit of USD 1.7 million in the corresponding quarter of 2018, mostly explained by decrease in goods exports, in particular cloves.

1.0 OUTPUT AND PRICES

Output Performance¹

The National Bureau of Statistics rebased national accounts statistics in 2019 by using 2015 as base year from 2007, in order to take into account changes in the structure of the economy and to ensure international comparability. Real GDP grew by 6.8 percent in the third quarter of 2018 compared with 5.0 percent in the corresponding quarter in 2017 (Chart 1.1). Economic activities that recorded high growth were health, which grew at 13.2 percent, transport and storage (12.4 percent), and water (10.7 percent). The high growth of health sector reflected the significant progress made in the provision of health insurance services, particularly by the National Health Insurance Fund.

Economic activities that largely contributed to overall GDP growth were transport and storage (14.4 percent), construction (13.9 percent), agriculture (12.1 percent), trade and repair (10.1 percent) and manufacturing (10.1 percent) sub-groups. Chart 1.2 shows percentage contribution of economic activities to real GDP growth.

Procurement of Crops

Procurement of major traditional export crops² were lower during the quarter ending March 2019 compared with volume procured in the similar quarter of 2018, save for cashew nuts and tea (Table 1.1). Increase in procurement of cashew nuts was attributed to high price offered in the preceding season that motivated farmers to attend their farms including abandoned ones coupled with good weather conditions. As for tea, the increase was on account of good weather and application of good agricultural practices. The fall in coffee procurement was due to change in trading system where coffee was only procured by cooperative and a large

Food Stocks

Food supply remains satisfactory in most parts of the country, owing to good harvests in 2018. The stock of food held by the National Food Reserve Agency (NFRA) amounted to 78,336.3 tonnes at the end of March 2019 (Table 1.3). The NFRA sold 26,603.9 tonnes of maize to private traders, World Food Program (WFP) and Prisons department. WFP purchased 25,405.8 tonnes

Wholesale Prices of Food Crops

Reflecting good food crops harvests during 2018, average wholesale prices of all major food crops³ were lower in the quarter ending March 2019 than in the corresponding quarter of 2018, except for maize and round potatoes (Table 1.4). However, wholesale prices of most major food crops were higher during the quarter compared with prices in the preceding quarter.

Inflation

Twelve-month headline inflation remained low, averaging 3.0 percent in the quarter to March 2019 compared with 3.1 percent and 4.0 percent in the preceding and corresponding quarter of 2018, respectively (Chart 1.3 and Table 1.5). This was because of low food inflation, which eased to 0.5 percent from 0.9 percent in the preceding quarter and 5.5 percent in the quarter ending March 2018, following good harvests in the 2018. Conversely, non-food inflation edged up to 5.3 percent from 5.2 percent and 3.2 percent largely as a result of increase in domestic prices of petroleum products, consistent with world market prices.

Net foreign assets (NFA) of the banking system—Bank of Tanzania and banks—contracted by 7.9 percent in March 2019 due to slowdown in foreign exchange holdings of the Bank of Tanzania owing to payment of government foreign obligations mostly related to on-going development projects (Chart 2.2).

Credit to the private sector recorded a year-on-year growth of 9.6 percent at the end of March 2019 compared with 4.9 percent at the end of December and 1.2 percent in the corresponding period of 2018 (Chart 2.3). The strong growth reflected the lagged impact of accommodative monetary policy coupled with measures implemented to reduce non-performing loans. The measures included mandatory use of credit reference system during loan approval process.

In terms of credit growth by activity, agriculture, mining, manufacturing, and personal loans dominated the other economic activities (Chart 2.4). Interest Rates

Interest rates charged by banks on loans and offered on deposits were relatively lower during the quarter ending March 2019 compared with the corresponding quarter of 2018. However, the spread between one-year lending and deposit rates widened due to slow pace in the decline of lending rates compared to that of deposit rates (Table 2.2).

3.0 PUBLIC FINANCE

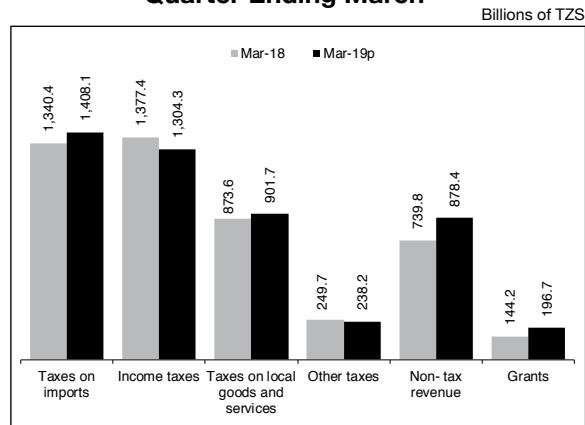

Government Budgetary Operations

Following government efforts to harmonize policies in support of broader economic activities together with measures to enforce tax laws and regulations, overall fiscal performance continued to register noticeable improvement. During the quarter ending March 2019, resource envelope—including revenue and grants—amounted to TZS 5,077.6 billion, while expenditure was TZS 5,460.6 billion.

Revenue and Grants

The increase was largely on account of new disbursements and appreciation of the US dollar against other currencies in which the debt is denominated. The disbursed outstanding debt accounted for 91.3 percent of the external debt stock. Central government external debt was USD 16,275.6 million (Table 3.1).

Long-term instruments—Treasury bonds and stocks—continued to hold the largest share in domestic debt stock, at 73.0 percent, in line with the government medium-term debt management strategy of mitigating refinancing risk by lengthening the maturity of the debt portfolio, (Table 3.3).

During the quarter ending March 2019, central government borrowed a total of TZS 1,222.8 billion from domestic market through securITIES, of which TZS 834.5 billion were through Treasury bills and TZS 388.3 billion Treasury bonds. Domestic debt raised by issuing debt securities during the year ending March 2019 was TZS 4,344.6 billion, of which TZS 2,810.6 billion was Treasury bills and TZS 1,534.0 billion Treasury bond.

Domestic debt that fell due for payment during the quarter amounted to TZS 1,240.0 billion, compared with TZS 1,390.6 billion in the preceding quarter. Out of the debt that fell due, principal amount of TZS 951.9 billion was rolled over and interest component of TZS 288.1 billion was paid out. Cumulative debt service during the year ending March 2019 amounted to TZS 5,042.1 billion, out of which TZS 3,749.5 billion was principal and the balance was interest that was paid out of the government resources.

4.0 EXTERNAL SECTOR PERFORMANCE

The overall balance of payments improved to a deficit of USD 326.4 million in the quarter ending March 2019 from a deficit of USD 455.7 million in the corresponding quarter in 2018. The current account registered a deficit of USD 686.6 million compared with a deficit of USD 652.7 million on account of increase in imports coupled with decrease in official current transfers. Gross official foreign reserves amounted to USD 4,681.7 million at the end of March 2019, sufficient to cover 4.6 months of projected imports of goods and services. The import cover above the country and East Africa Community benchmarks of a minimum of 4.0 and 4.5 months, respectively.

Goods Account

The value of goods exports totalled to USD 1,226.0 million during the quarter ending March 2019, higher by 6.3 percent than amount realized in the corresponding quarter in 2018, on account of good performance of non-traditional exports. Non-traditional goods exports increased to USD 979.5 million from USD 714.0 million, with all major export categories recording improvements except re-exports. Likewise, the value of imported goods increased to USD 2,294.3 million from USD 2,000.2 million, driven by capital and intermediate goods, particularly petroleum products. The increase in capital goods imports was largely because of ongoing implementation of development projects, particularly infrastructure development.

Services and Income Accounts

Services account improved, recording a surplus of USD 511.0 million in the quarter ending March 2019 compared with a surplus of USD 359.5 million in the corresponding quarter of 2018 following increase in receipts coupled with a decline in payments, particularly of travel related services. Meanwhile, primary income account registered a deficit of USD 220.3 million compared with a deficit of USD 270.9 million, largely driven by a decline in interest payments (Table 4.1).

World Commodity Prices

Average prices of all selected commodities on world markets were lower in the quarter ending March 2019 than in the preceding quarter, save for gold, wheat and maize (Table 4.2). Prices of coffee and cotton declined largely due to improved supply in Brazil and increase in production and inventory in major producing areas, respectively. Similarly, cloves price decreased following low global demand. Meanwhile, prices of petroleum products went down mainly due to over production in the USA. Conversely, gold price rose largely attributed to a high demand in China, the world largest consumer of gold, while higher prices for maize and wheat were associated with strong global demand.

Exports

Export of goods and services decreased by 2.7 percent year-on-year to USD 51.4 million in the quarter ending March 2019, on account of a decline in the value of goods export. The value of goods export was USD 2.0 million in the quarter ending March 2019, down from USD 9.8 million in the similar quarter in 2018 due to low cloves exports. During the quarter, all goods exports recorded declines as in the preceding quarter, save for fish and fish products (Table 5.7). Meanwhile, receipts from service exports increased to USD 49.4 million from USD 43.0 million in the quarter to March 2018 largely on account of higher earnings from tourism activities.

Imports

During the quarter ending March 2019, imports of goods (f.o.b) and services amounted to USD 68.0 million compared with USD 67.7 million in the quarter to March 2018. The increase emanated from higher service payments. The value of goods imports (f.o.b) decreased to USD 48.3 million during the quarter from USD 49.8 million in the similar quarter in 2018 on account of decline in the value of consumer goods imports (Table 5.8). Meanwhile, intermediate goods imports, which accounts for 47.7 percent of goods imports and dominated by oil imports, grew by 2.2 percent on annual basis. Capital goods imports that accounts for 23.7 percent of total goods imports, was dominated by building and construction equipment, vehicles, motorcycles and bicycles.

Current transfers account balance was USD 10.1 million during the quarter to March 2019 compared with USD 10.8 million in the corresponding quarter of 2018, following increase in outflows that outweigh increases in inflows (Table 5.6).

6.0 ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENTS IN THE EAC AND SADC

Headline inflation across East African Community (EAC) countries remained moderate and within the regional convergence ceiling of 8.0 percent. All EAC member states achieved the convergence criteria. During the quarter ending March 2019, annual headline inflation averaged 1.5 percent compared with 0.9 percent in the preceding quarter (Table 6.1). With exception of Uganda and Rwanda, other EAC member states registered declines in headline inflation owing to decrease in food prices. In Rwanda, the increase in average headline inflation during the quarter was mainly due to higher costs of housing, water, electricity, gas and other fuels, while in Uganda it was explained by rise in costs of transport, health and communication.

In the Southern African Development Community (SADC) region, twelve-month headline inflation increased to an average of 9.7 percent in the quarter ending March 2019 from 8.2 percent in the previous quarter (Table 6.1). All SADC member states recorded decreases in headline inflation, except Zimbabwe. Easing in inflation in Tanzania, Namibia, Malawi and Angola was mainly attributed to the decline in prices of food, while in Botswana, Mozambique, Zambia and Mauritius was largely on account of decrease in costs of housing, transport, electricity, water, gas, and other fuels; and restaurants and hotels. Conversely headline inflation in Zimbabwe rose significantly mainly due to increase in prices of some food items associated with economic uncertainties.
