SUMMARY OF ECONOMIC DEVELOMENTS

In the quarter ending June 2022, the economy continued to experience spillover effects of high commodity prices in the world, as well as tight financial conditions and monetary policy tightening by central banks in advanced economies. These global challenges have been caused by disruptions of global supply chain following the outbreak of war in Ukraine in February 2022. As a result, there was an increase in the general price level in the quarter ending June 2022.

In Tanzania Mainland, twelve-month headline inflation averaged 4.1 percent, higher than 3.4 percent in the corresponding quarter in 2021. The increase manifested largely in food and energy prices. In Zanzibar, inflation was 4 percent, up from 3.1 percent in the preceding quarter. The increase occurred in prices of both food and non-food consumer goods, particularly green cooking bananas, Mbeya rice, wheat flour and price of petroleum products. Nonetheless, inflation rate remained within the target of 3-5 percent for 2021/22 and consistent with EAC and SADC convergence criteria of a maximum of 8 percent and 3-7 percent, respectively. A similar rising trend of inflation was observed in the EAC and SADC economic blocs, with Tanzania and only a few other countries managing to achieve the convergence criteria.

Monetary policy implementation was faced with the challenge of rising inflation and the need to support credit expansion to the private sector by banks for growth of the economy. In order to tame inflationary pressures arising from the demand side without undermining economic growth prospects, the scale of expansion of liquidity to banks was reduced. Consequently, money supply increased, but at a slower pace than before. Credit growth to the private sector remained strong and consistent with projections, attributable to monetary policy and improved business conditions. Specifically, credit growth averaged 15.9 percent in the quarter ending June 2022, the highest in the past five years. Lending rates remained almost unchanged at around 16 percent, with some banks lending to the agriculture sector at less than 10 percent under special loan facility established by the Bank of Tanzania to support recovery of the economy from COVID-19 pandemic.

Government fiscal performance was satisfactory, as revenue collection improved and expenditure continued to be aligned with available resources. In Tanzania Mainland, revenue and grants amounted to TZS 6,409.5 billion during the quarter ending June 2022, an increase of 20.3 percent from the corresponding quarter in 2021. Out of the amount, central government revenue was TZS 6,046.7 billion, which was about 35 percent higher than the amount collected in the corresponding quarter of 2021. Expenditure amounted to TZS 6,799.9 billion, of which recurrent expenditure was TZS 3,863.2 billion and the remainder was development spending. For Zanzibar, revenue collection increased by 17.7 percent to reach TZS 241.4 billion, of which non-tax revenue was TZS 26.7 billion. Expenditure was TZS 340 billion, where TZS 174.9 billion was recurrent expenditure and TZS 165.1 billion was development expenditure.

The external sector of the country also experienced headwinds arising from global challenges of high commodity prices, tight financial conditions and rising inflation in trading partners. Partly reflecting these challenges, the current account deficit in Tanzania Mainland widened to USD 1,390.5 million in the quarter ending June 2022 compared with a deficit of USD 796.2 million in the corresponding quarter of 2021. Much of the increase in the deficit was due to a rise in imports of white petroleum products. In Zanzibar, the current account deficit widened to USD 197.3 compared to USD 82.1 million recorded in the corresponding quarter in 2021, mainly associated with an increase in imports, which outweighed the increase in exports.

1.0 OUTPUT AND PRICES

Inflation

In the quarter ending June 2022, inflation increased due to high commodity prices in the world market but remained in line with the country target of 3-5 percent for 2021/22 and regional convergence criteria¹. Twelve-month headline inflation averaged 4.1 percent, higher than 3.8 percent in the preceding quarter and 3.4 percent in the corresponding quarter in 2021 (Table 1.1).

Reflecting high oil prices in the world market, inflation of energy, fuel, and utilities was 12.1 percent in the quarter ending June 2022 compared to 6.5 percent in the preceding quarter and 2.5 percent recorded in the corresponding quarter in 2021. Food inflation (food and non-alcoholic beverages) was 6 percent slightly lower than 6.3 percent in the preceding quarter owing to a fall in prices of finger millet grain, fish, sunflower oil and vegetables. However, it was higher than 4.8 percent in the corresponding quarter of 2021, owing to a rise in prices of food, particularly maize, rice and wheat. Core inflation² was 3.1 percent compared to 3 percent in the preceding quarter and 3.7 percent in the corresponding quarter in 2021. The decrease is associated with a fall in prices of restaurants and accommodation services, clothing and footwear, recreation, sports and culture items, information, communication, health and education services.

Headline inflation in 2022/23 is projected to be within medium term target of 3-7 percent. Inflation is expected to edge up relatively in response to anticipated rise in prices of food and energy. Low food harvests locally and in neighbouring countries, ongoing Russia-Ukraine war and residual effects of COVID-19 pandemic will be the main drivers of price changes.

Food Stocks

Food stocks held by the National Food Reserve Agency (NFRA) comprising maize grain, paddy and sorghum decline to 141,576 tonnes at the end of June 2022, from 200,626 tonnes in the preceding quarter (Table 1.2). During the quarter, NFRA purchased 58.7 tonnes of sorghum, sold 59,104.6 tonnes of maize to grain traders and millers, and offered 4.06 tonnes of maize under corporate social responsibility arrangement.

Wholesale prices

Wholesale prices of major food crops were higher compared to price levels recorded in the corresponding quarter in 2021 (Table 1.3). Prices were also higher when compared with the preceding quarter, save for round potatoes³. Rising prices were mainly attributed to an increase in demand for food from neighbouring countries and low harvests as a result of delay of short rains.

Fuel Prices

Following a steady recovery of the global economy from the effects of COVID-19 pandemic in 2021 and the Russia-Ukraine war which started in February 2022, the price of oil in the world market increased. Consequently, domestic prices of diesel, kerosene and petrol rose by 46.6 percent, 43.3 percent and 36 percent, respectively from levels recorded in the corresponding quarter in 2021 (Table 1.4).

Production and Procurement of Major Commodities

Production of Gold and Diamond

Gold produced by large-scale miners slightly decreased to USD 444 million in the quarter ending June 2022 from USD 469 million in the similar quarter in 2021. This was associated with closure of Buzwagi Gold Mine in June 2021. Production of diamond was 63,973.8 carats valued at USD 17.4 million (Table 1.5).

2.0 MONETARY AND FINANCIAL MARKETS DEVELOPMENTS

Money Supply and Credit

The conduct of monetary policy in the quarter ending June 2022 was faced with challenges of rising inflationary pressures from high commodity prices in the world market. Reflecting this global effect, monetary policy accommodation was scaled down, leading to moderation in the pace of money supply growth. The growth of extended broad money supply (M3) averaged 8.5 percent compared with 9.1 percent in the quarter ending June 2021 (Chart 2.1, Table 2.1 and Chart 2.2).

Credit extended to the private sector and central government by the banking system grew at an average of 20 percent in the quarter ending June 2022 compared with 10.2 percent in the quarter ended June 2021. Credit extended to the private sector grew at around 16 percent, the highest in the past five years, and significantly higher than 4.4 percent in the quarter ending June 2021 (Chart 2.3). The strong growth was largely attributed to improved business conditions, recovery of economic activities, as well as supportive monetary and fiscal conditions.

Credit to agriculture, mining, personal loans—primarily to micro, small and medium undertakings, trade, and manufacturing registered the highest growth rates (Chart 2.4). Negotiated lending rates (interest rate for loans to prime customers) was 14.25 percent, almost unchanged from the corresponding quarter in 2021. The overall and one-year time deposit interest rates were at around 7 percent and 8 percent, respectively. Negotiated deposit rates averaged 9.6 percent (Table 2.2).

In the Treasury bonds market, 5-, 7-, 15-, 20- and 25-year bond auctions were conducted, altogether worth TZS 764.3 billion, for government fiscal operations. Bids received amounted to TZS 775.4 billion, out of which TZS 497 billion were successful. In line with sizable demand, yields to maturity declined across all tenures.

The inter-bank cash market (IBCM) was active, thus facilitating distribution of liquidity amongst banks. Transactions amounted to TZS 7,334.43 billion in the quarter ending June 2022, higher than TZS 5,318.92 billion traded in the preceding quarter. The transactions for 2–7 days tenure remained dominant, accounting for 62.7 percent of the total market turnover. The overnight IBCM interest rate averaged 2.05 percent compared with 3.15 percent in the preceding quarter. Overall IBCM interest rate eased to 4.23 percent from 4.42 percent in the previous quarter, while 2–7 days interest rate remained broadly the same at 4.51 percent (Chart 2.7).

During the quarter ending June 2022, the Bank of Tanzania did not auction reverse repurchase agreements (reverse repo). The decision was driven by the need to reduce the pace of liquidity injection in an effort to contain inflationary pressure arising from the demand side.

The inter-bank foreign exchange market (IFEM) remained active and liquid, with the Bank of Tanzania participating in the market to support demand for imports and ensuring orderly market operations. Total value of transactions in the IFEM amounted to USD 118.5 million, compared with USD 85 million and USD 65.1 million in preceding quarter and corresponding quarter in 2021, respectively (Chart 2.8).

The Bank of Tanzania sold USD 59 million in the quarter ending June 2022, compared with USD 30 million sold in the preceding quarter. The shilling remained fairly stable, traded at an average rate of TZS 2,311.81 per US dollar compared with TZS 2,309.58 per US dollar in the preceding quarter. On annual basis, the shilling depreciated marginally by 0.08 percent from TZS 2,310.03 per US dollar registered in the quarter ending June 2021.

National Debt

National debt amounted to USD 38,141.2 million at the end of June 2022, representing a quarterly and annual increase of USD 238.3 million and USD 4,368.1 million, respectively. External debt (public and private) accounted for 72.6 percent, while public debt (external and domestic) was 81.2 percent of total national debt stock.

During the quarter, external debt decreased by USD 705.7 million to USD 27,708.1 million, reflecting clearance of arrears owed to Airtel Tanzania Plc and Vodacom Tanzania. Annually, the debt increased by USD 4,368.1 million, mainly attributable to disbursements of the Rapid Credit Facility in September 2021. Out of total external debt, disbursed outstanding debt accounted for 91.2 percent and the balance was interest arrears. The public's share of external debt (central government and public corporations) was 74.2 percent (Table 3.1).

During the period, disbursements worth USD 735.6 million were received, out of which, USD 524.3 million was received by the central government and the balance to the private sector. Debt service amounted to USD 683.7 million (equivalent to 23.6 percent of export of goods and services), out of which, principal repayment was USD 563 million and the balance was interest payment.

Domestic debt stood at TZS 24,039.8 billion, an increase of TZS 2,261.8 billion from the end of the preceding quarter and TZS 5,105.5 billion from the level recorded in June 2021. The quarterly increase was mainly on account of supplementary domestic borrowing to offset the unrealized borrowing from external sources, whereas the annual increase includes special bonds issued to securitize pensions obligations. Largest share of debt was in long-term instruments (Treasury bonds and stocks), accounting for 83.8 percent (Table 3.3). Pension funds and commercial banks remained the dominant creditors, jointly holding 59.2 percent of total domestic debt (Table 3.4).

During the quarter, the Government raised TZS 1,157 billion from the domestic debt market, comprising Treasury bonds worth TZS 587.2 billion and the balance was from Treasury bills. Domestic debt service without liquidity papers and overdraft payments, amounted to TZS 1,559.6 billion, out of which, principal amount of TZS 998.9 billion was rolled over and the balance was interest payment.

4.0 EXTERNAL SECTOR PERFORMANCE

The external sector continued to experience global challenges arising from high commodity prices largely caused by the Russia-Ukraine war amid rising consumer demand. In the quarter ending June 2022, the current account deficit was USD 1,390.5 million compared with a deficit of USD 796.2 million in the corresponding quarter of 2021. The imports bill, led by white petroleum products, increased, offsetting the rise in exports (Table 4.1). Foreign exchange reserves amounted to USD 5,110.3 million at the end of June 2022 compared to USD 5,206.7 million in the previous quarter. The stock of reserves is sufficient to cover about 4.6 months of projected imports of goods and services, consistent with the country benchmark of not less than 4 months.

Goods Account

During the quarter ending June 2022, the value of goods exported rose by 21.6 percent to USD 1,846.4 million from the corresponding quarter of 2022. The rise in the exports of goods is attributed to higher export values of traditional exports and non-traditional goods particularly manufactured goods. Traditional exports increased to USD 86.4

million from 46.1 million, supported by significant increase in exports of cashew nuts, coffee and tobacco. Similarly, manufactured goods doubled to USD 506.9 million, bolstered by the export of textiles, iron and steel, and fertilizers. In addition, good performance was also recorded in exports of minerals, particularly gold, diamond and concentrates. At the same time, the value of goods imported rose significantly by 38.8 percent to USD 3,317.7 million during the quarter ending June 2022, compared to the same period in 2021. This was mainly a result of an increased imports bill particularly petroleum products, iron and steel, and plastic items. Imports of petroleum product surged by 56.4 percent to USD 776.3 million, on account of a rising trend in crude oil prices in the world market (Table 4.2).

Services and Income Accounts

The services account reported a surplus of USD 276.8 million in the quarter ending June 2022, higher than USD 259.3 million recorded during the same quarter in 2021. This reflects pickup in service receipts, particularly from travel services where receipts almost doubled in the quarter ending June 2022 when compared with the same quarter in 2021. The increase in travel receipts is consistent with the rising number of international visitors which almost doubled from 143,828 to 286,502 during the two quarters. The primary income account recorded a deficit of USD 422.7 million compared to a deficit of USD 313.7 million in the same quarter of 2021, due to higher interest payments. Meanwhile, the secondary income account registered a surplus of USD 226.8 million, up from a surplus of USD 130.3 million in the corresponding period in 2021, explained by a rise in transfers to the private sector (Table 4.3).

World Commodity Prices

During the quarter ending June 2022, prices of all commodities rose relative to the same quarter of 2021 (Table 4.4). Prices of crude oil and white petroleum products increased on account of demand-supply imbalances, further escalated by the ongoing Russia and Ukraine war. Gold prices rose slightly owing to high inflation amidst high risk environment in the financial market. However, prices eased in the last month of the quarter on account of raised interest rates by the US Federal Reserve. On the other hand, prices of most agricultural products increased due to supply chain disruptions.

5.0 ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENTS IN ZANZIBAR

Procurement of Cloves and Seaweeds

Procurement of major export crops, -cloves and seaweed, slowed down by 3.2 percent to 2,426.2 tonnes in the quarter ending June 2022 compared with 2,506.9 tonnes in the corresponding period in 2021 (Chart 5.1). Specifically, procurement of cloves amounted to 34.2 tonnes, up from zero tonnes in the corresponding period in 2021. Non-procurement during the corresponding quarter was caused by several challenges especially those related to COVID-19 pandemic such as closure in the global market. By contrast, procurement of seaweeds dropped to 2,392 tonnes in the quarter ending June 2022 from 2,506.9 tonnes recorded in the corresponding quarter of 2021, largely attributed to production related challenges.

Tourism

The number of tourist arrivals during the quarter ending June 2022 rose by 63.9 percent to 71,346 from 43,535 recorded in the corresponding quarter in 2021 (Chart 5.4). The increase was on account of lifting travel restrictions in many countries and Government's continued efforts to promote tourism attractions within and outside the country, particularly the launch of the Royal Tour Documentary.

Inflation

Headline inflation averaged 4 percent, up from 3.1 percent and 1.5 percent in the preceding quarter and corresponding quarter in 2021, respectively (Table 5.1). The increase in inflation was mainly driven by increases in both food and non-food prices. Food inflation rose to an average of 3.5 percent in the quarter ending June 2022, up from 1.9 percent in the quarter ending March 2022 and 0.8 percent in the quarter ending June 2021 on account of increase in the price of green cooking bananas, Mbeya rice and wheat flour. Likewise, non-food inflation averaged 4.4 percent in the quarter ending June 2022 compared to an average of 3.9 percent and 2.1 percent recorded in the quarter ending March 2022 and the similar quarter of 2021, respectively. The increase in non-food inflation is attributed to a rise in price of petroleum products⁴.

Current Account

The current account deficit widened to USD 197.3 million, during the quarter ending June 2022, from a deficit of USD 82.1 million recorded in the corresponding quarter in 2021. 6.0 REGIONAL ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENTS

During the quarter ending June 2022, inflation in the EAC region rose to 9.4 percent, considerably higher than the corresponding quarter of 2021 and the convergence criteria of not more than 8.0 percent (Table 6.1). Elevated inflation in Kenya and Uganda was mainly driven by higher food prices, whereas cost of food and utilities brought on high inflation in Rwanda. In the SADC region inflation was above the convergence criteria of 3-7 percent, except for Tanzania, South Africa, Seychelles, Madagascar and Namibia (Table 6.1). Inflation in Angola and Malawi remained high owing to food prices, while in Zimbabwe and Botswana it was on account of higher prices of food and transportation cost. Inflation moderated in Seychelles and Zambia owing to a slowdown in food prices.

8.0 GLOSSARY

Money supply

The sum of currency circulating outside the banking system and deposits of residents with banks defined in various levels of aggregation. In Tanzania, three aggregates of money supply are compiled and reported, namely; narrow money (M1), broad money (M2), and extended broad money (M3).

Narrow money (M1)

Consists of currency in circulation outside banking system plus demand deposits (cheque account).

Broad money (M2)

Comprises of narrow money (M1) plus fixed-term and savings deposits of residents with banks in the country.

Extended broad money (M3)

Consists of broad money (M2) plus foreign currency deposits of the residents with banks in the country.

Reserve money (M0)

Also referred as base money, or the monetary base or high-powered money. This includes currency in circulation outside the banking system, cash held in the vaults of banks and deposits of banks kept with the Bank of Tanzania in national currency.

Currency in circulation outside banks

Notes and coins of Tanzanian shillings circulating outside the banking system, i.e. outside the Bank of Tanzania and banks.

Disbursed Outstanding Debt

This is the amount of debt that has been disbursed but yet to be paid back or forgiven.

Discount rate

The rate of interest at which the Bank of Tanzania charges on loans it extends to banks. It uses Treasury bills rate as a base plus a loaded factor, which can be changed from time to time depending on the liquidity situation in the market.

Exchange rate

The price at which one unit of a currency can be purchased with another currency.

External debt stock

The stock of a country's debt that is borrowed from foreign lenders through private commercial banks, foreign governments, or international financial institutions. It is the sum of public, publicly guaranteed, and private non-guaranteed long-term debt, use of IMF credit, and short-term debt (includes all debt having an original maturity of one year or less and interest in arrears on long-term debt).

Gross Official Reserves

Gross official reserves consist of external assets that are readily available to, and controlled by the Bank of Tanzania for direct financing of balance of payments, and for indirectly regulating the magnitude of balance of payments imbalances through intervention in foreign exchange markets. Gross official reserves comprise the Bank of Tanzania's holdings of monetary gold, special drawing rights (SDRs), reserve position in the International Monetary Fund, and foreign exchange resources, available to the Bank of Tanzania for meeting external financing needs.

Inflation

The rate at which the average level of prices of a basket of selected goods and services in an economy is increasing over a period of time. It is often expressed as a percentage. Inflation indicates a decrease in the purchasing power of a nation's currency.

Food inflation

This is a measure of the rate of change of price of food both processed and unprocessed food.

Non-food inflation

This is a measure of price movements caused by factors other than food prices.

Core inflation

This measures the rate of change in prices of goods and services other than energy, utilities and unprocessed food, over a specified period of time. The unprocessed food items, energy and utilities are excluded since they are volatile and hence may be affected by non-monetary events, which do not constitute the underlying monetary inflation.

Interbank Cash Market

A money market in which banks extend loans to one another for a specified term of not more than 90 days. Each transaction represents an agreement between the banks to exchange the agreed amounts of currency at the specified rate on a fixed date.

Overnight Interbank Cash Market

The component of the money market involving the shortest term loan. Lenders agree to lend borrowers funds only “overnight” i.e. the borrower must repay the borrowed funds plus interest at the start of business the next day.

Lombard facility

An overnight loan facility available for banks to borrow from the Bank of Tanzania at their own discretion, by pledging eligible government securities as collateral.

Lombard rate

The interest rate that the Bank of Tanzania charges bank for borrowing through Lombard facility. This rate is computed basing on the prevailing weighted average yield of 35-day Treasury bill, repo or overnight inter-bank rate, whichever is higher in the market plus a margin.

National Debt

Total national debt obligations that include public debt and private sector external debt.

Public Debt

Debt payable or guaranteed by the Government. Tanzania's public debt has two main components, domestic debt (which is incurred principally to finance fiscal deficit) and external debt (which is raised primarily to finance development projects and comprises of debt the Central Government owes to foreign creditors and external obligations of government departments and agencies that are guaranteed for repayment by the Central Government).

Repurchase agreement (repo)

An arrangement involving sale of securities at a specified price with commitment to repurchase the same or similar securities at a fixed price on a specified future date. Repo are initiated by Bank of Tanzania for mopping up excess liquidity in banks.

Reverse repo

Simply the same as repurchase agreement from the buyer's viewpoint. It is an arrangement that involves buying of securities at a specified price with commitment to resale the same or similar securities at a fixed price on a specified future date. Reverse repo are initiated by Bank of Tanzania to inject liquidity in banks.

Transferable deposits

Comprise of all deposits that are immediately convertible into currency and directly usable for making payments by cheques, draft, giro order, direct debit/credit or other payment facility without any kind of significant restriction or penalty.

Other deposits

Include all claims reflecting evidence of deposit other than transferable deposits. Typical examples are saving and fixed-term deposits.

Weighted yields of Treasury bills

This is the average yield of Treasury bills, which is weighted by the volume sold of 35-day, 91-day, 182-day, and 364-day Treasury bills, expressed in percentage per year.
